DETAILED ACTION

This office action is written in response to the paper filed 01/02/2004. Claims 1-20 have been cancelled.

Claims 21-58 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 21-44, drawn to a method of killing and detecting normal and cancerous prostate cells comprising providing a biological agent which binds to an outer membrane domain of prostate, wherein contacting is carried out in a living mammal comprising administering the biological agent to the mammal, classified in class 424, subclass 9.1 and 130.1.
- II. Claims 45-58, drawn to an isolated biological agent, which bind to an outer membrane domain of prostate specific membrane antigen and a hybridoma cell line, classified in class 530 subclass 350 and 387.1.

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case biological agent of Group II can be used to immunize an animal to produce an antibody, as opposed to being used as a detecting agent for cancer cells.

Searching the inventions of Groups I and II together would impose serious search burden. The inventions of Groups I and II have a separate status in the art as shown by their different classifications. Moreover, in the instant case, the search for the biological agent and a method of killing and detecting normal and cancerous prostate cells are not coextensive. Prior art, which teaches a biological agent, would not necessarily be applicable to the method of killing and detecting normal and cancerous prostate cells. Moreover, even if the biological agent was known, the method a method of killing and detecting normal and cancerous prostate cells using the biological agent may be novel and unobvious in view of the preamble or active steps.

Election of species

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- A. Antibody, ligand
- B. Drug, toxin, radioactive substance, chemotherapeutic, enzyme, and molecules of fungal, viral and bacterial origin.
- C. Fluorescent label, radioactive label, immunohistochemical probe.

In the event that applicant elects Group I or II, applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from groups of A, B, and C for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Currently the generic claims for group A are 21, 32, 45.
Currently the generic claims for group B are 27, 28, 48, and 49.
Currently the generic claims for group C are 32 and 53.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitation of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of M.P.E.P. 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitation of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 C.F.R. 1.312.

In the event of a rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 C.F.R. 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet the criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. 103(b), 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or otherwise include the limitation of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See M.P.E.P. 804.01.
